

Sara Frank, Second Grade Teacher

sfrank@cityneighborshamilton.org

Sara Frank just moved to Maryland in July 2011 and is excited for the new adventure. She is from New York, and grew up in New Mexico. She earned her Bachelors in Elementary Education from the University of New Mexico. Immediately after graduating she moved to Colorado. She has spent her teaching career in Colorado where she earned her Masters as a Reading Specialist. Mrs. Frank has also had the opportunity to teach in Mexico and study in Spain. She is excited for the new challenge in Maryland and happy to be a part of City Neighbors!
